Financial Assistance Cornerstone Habitat Program (for Full-Time Students)

The Habitat Program allows qualified families to receive a reduced out-of-pocket tuition rate. Families are encouraged to help raise funds for the school by recruiting new students or by participating in volunteer or fundraising projects.

- A third-party agency is utilized in helping to determine eligibility (annual fee applies).
- Primary criteria include family income, number of students attending Cornerstone Christian Academy, and fulfillment of prior year commitments. Income to debt ratio may also be evaluated.
- Tuition assistance applications can be obtained from the Admissions Office or online at www.factstuitionaid.com.
